

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW MAIL ARRANGEMENT.—On Tuesday morning next the new postal railway cars will be put on the route from the city of Washington to Richmond, Va., via Aquia creek. The following agents are assigned to duty under the new arrangement: John O. Walker, formerly mail agent on the same route; J. F. Langley, formerly on the Orange and Alexandria route; William H. Eddins, formerly on the Richmond and Wilmington route; and W. H. Truheart, formerly on the Richmond and Greensboro route. There will be two daily lines—and a night—making connection with the northern mails. There will also be close connection with the Southern mails, preventing any detention at Richmond.

INCENDIARY ATTEMPT.—Last night, between ten and eleven o'clock, night watchmen Jos. Horsemann and William Javins, while on their beat in the Second Ward, discovered smoke issuing from the house of Mr. George Richards, on Fairfax street, near the corner of Queen. As the building was unoccupied, they broke open the doors, and found that the fire, which had been kindled in a closet, was spreading rapidly. They at once gave the alarm, and by means of buckets kept the flames partially subdued until the arrival of the fire engines, when it was speedily extinguished. There was but little furniture in the house, and the damage sustained is but slight.

RECEPTION.—At 11 o'clock a. m., Tuesday, January 1, 1867, the President will receive the members of the Cabinet and Foreign Ministers, the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, Senators and Representatives in Congress, Judges of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia and of the Court of Claims. At half-past 11 a. m., the officers of the army and navy and the Marine Corps will be received. The reception of citizens will commence at 12 o'clock m., (at which hour the gates of the enclosure will be opened,) and will terminate at 2 o'clock p. m. Ladies will be received.

MILITARY ASSIGNMENTS.—By a special order of the War Department, Second Lieutenant William Shields, 44th Infantry V. R. C., is ordered to return to this city, and resume his duties with the Freedmen's Bureau.

Brevet Major Paul R. Hambrecht has been commissioned as Second Lieutenant in the 45th Infantry V. R. C., and ordered to report at Louisville, Ky., the Headquarters of the Department of Tennessee.

Brevet Major John Hoff, lately appointed a Captain in the regular army, left this city yesterday for Richmond, Va., in which city his regiment is stationed.

PRECAUTION.—General Rucker, General Ludington, and Chief Engineer Dixon, of the United States Steam Fire Department, have, within the past few days, visited all the buildings throughout Washington occupied by Government officers, for the purpose of ascertaining what combustible material is in the buildings, and what measures have been adopted to guard against fire.

THE MARKET. This morning, was tolerably supplied, considering the severity of the weather. Turkeys from $1 to $3, according to size; chickens from 30 to 75 cents a piece; geese from $1 to $1.50. Rabbits 30 cents. Butter from 35 to 50 cents. The butchers had good supplies of beef, mutton, pork, &c.—at former prices. But few vegetables are brought to market.

TO ENTER UPON HIS DUTIES.—The new Sheriff, Captain James M. Stuart, elected last May, having given the necessary amount of security, and qualified, and having appointed his Deputy and Jailor, will enter upon the duties of his office on Tuesday next, the 1st of January. His office, for the present, will be in the old Court House, over the market.

COLLISION.—The schooner Moses Van Name, of New York, loaded with coal, was collided with by a United States Revenue Cutter, near Fort Washington, on Thursday, and had her larboard bow stove in and shattered. She was towed up to this city yesterday evening, by two tug boats which went to her assistance.
